

BCHP | EGShares Blue Chip ETF

This Fund will be closing and the final date of trading on the NYSE Arca will be October 30, 2015. Please consult the Supplement, dated September 18, 2015, to the Fund's Prospectus, dated July 29, 2015, for further information.

Reasons to Invest

- Timely investment thesis: Accessing emerging market exposure through developed market multinationals is a well-established research theme
- Finding the needle in the haystack: It is challenging to find developed market multinationals with measureable, meaningful and growing revenue from emerging markets (EM), however the companies in the EGAI Developed Markets Blue Chip EM Access Index on average derive 53% of revenues from EM (Source: EGA, 2015)
- Diversification to existing developed market allocation: Current allocations to developed market international equities could be diversified by investing in Blue Chip companies that have above average allocations to emerging market revenue. Diversification does not ensure a profit or protect against loss.

Carefully consider the Fund's investment objectives, risk factors and charges and expenses before investing. This and other information can be found in the Fund's prospectus, which may be obtained by calling + 1 888 800 4347 or by visiting the Fund's website egshares.com to view or download a prospectus. Read the prospectus carefully before investing. Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal.

Important Risks: This Fund is non-diversified and, as a result, may have greater volatility than diversified funds. This Fund will concentrate its investments in issuers of one or more particular industries to the same extent that its Underlying Index is so concentrated and to the extent permitted by applicable regulatory guidance. Concentration risk results from maintaining exposure to issuers conducting business in a specific industry. Emerging market investments involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles, from economic or political instability in other nations or increased volatility and lower trading volume. Mid-cap companies generally will have greater volatility in price than the stocks of large companies due to limited product lines or resources or a dependency upon a particular market niche.
